DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 12-22 are presented for examination. Applicant filed an amendment on 12/30/2003 amending claims 12, 20 and 21. In light of Applicant's amendment, the Examiner withdraws the grounds of rejection of claims 12-22 based on 35 USC 112 and 35 USC 103. However, new grounds of rejection are established in the instant office action based on 35 USC 103 as set forth in detail below.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 12-22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 12-13 and 15-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garrett et al, Pat No. 5,325,291 and further in view of May, Jerrold , "A Hybrid system improves claims auditing at Blue Cross" and "Number of Uninsured Motorists Drivers Nose-Dives"(hereinafter Insure-Rite).

As to claim 12, Garrett and May disclose the claimed limitations as discussed previously in Paper No. 12.

Art Unit: 3626

Garrett and May do not explicitly disclose data in the claimed databases do not have a cross indexing scheme; sorting and matching the non-corresponding sequences of insurance, driver and vehicle databases to generate a working database.

However, Insure-Rite discloses sorting and matching non-corresponding sequences of insurance, driver and vehicle databases, where the data is not cross-indexed, to generate a working database (i.e. database compares state data on vehicle registrations and driver licenses with policy information provided each month by all Utah insurers)(page 1). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of Applicant's invention to include sorting and matching non-corresponding sequences of insurance, driver and vehicle databases, where the data is not cross-indexed, to generate a working database as disclosed by Insure-Rite within Garrett and may for the motivation of reducing uninsured motorists on the highway (see page 1, first paragraph).

Claims 13, 15 and 16 have not been amended and are rejected for the reasons provided in Paper No. 8.

5. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garrett, May and Insure-Rite as applied to claim 12 above, and further in view of New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Art Unit: 3626

Claim 14 has not been amended and is rejected for the reasons set forth in Paper No. 8

6. Claims 17-18 and 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garrett, May and Insure-Rite as applied to claim 12 above, and further in view of Johnston, Michelle Dally, "State targets Scofflaw Drivers Database to reveal Who is Insured" (hereinafter Johnston).

Claims 17-18 have not been amended and therefore are rejected for the same reasons provided in Paper No. 8.

Claims 20 and 21 have been amended in substantially the same fashion as claim 12 and are rejected for substantially the same reasons as claim 12 above.

7. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garret, May and Insure-Rite as applied to claim 12 above, and further in view of Bosco, Pat. No. 5,191,522.

Claim 19 has not been amended and is therefore rejected for the same reasons provided in Paper No. 8.

Art Unit: 3626

8. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garrett, May, and Insure-Rite as applied to claim 21 above, and further in view of Deppa et al., Pat. No. 5,732,198.

Claims 22 has not been amended and therefore is rejected for the same reasons provided in Paper No. 8.
